Evaluation themes

science

try to understand the world and develop a representative model model validation & verification reproducability of models and experiments design

tools that are intended to alter the state of the world focus on users, human-in-the-loop functionality, efficiency, aesthetics